

Healthy Food and Drink Policy Guidelines

What is included in the Policy

All food and drink sold on site, e.g. retailers, caterers, food trucks

Fundraising - where food or drink are sold on your premises

Vending machines

Snack boxes

Gifts and incentives for staff and patients such as lollipops after treatment

External contractors providing food or catering, e.g. drug companies

Gifts, rewards, and incentives given on behalf of the organisation to staff, guest speakers and formal visitors

Off-site functions organised by your organisation for staff, visitors and/or general public, e.g. conferences, training and information sessions

What is excluded from the Policy

Food and drink brought to work by staff for their own consumption

Gifts from families/whānau to staff

Self-catered staff shared lunches

Inpatient meal services and meals on wheels

Food and drink provided by clients/patients and their families for their own use